

Friday October 10, 2008| 12pm - 7pm
Saturday October 11, 2008| 8:30am - 5pm

University of Illinois at Chicago
750 S. Halsted St. Student Center East
Chicago, IL 60607

Early Registration fee

2 day pass: $50 general / $30 non-profit / $15 student

1 day pass: $35 general / $20 non-profit / $10 student

(includes breakfast, lunch and program materials)

Walk in Registration fee: $60 / $35 / $20

2008 4th Annual

Asian American Leadership Forum

Re-imagine what you can do after attending these workshops:

- From Geek to Chic: Personal Branding
- Assertive Communication
- Make It Right: Improving the Chicago Education System for APA Youth & Young People
- Racial Alliances Among Low-Wage Workers: Being Advocates/Activists in the Current Labor Environment
- Cultural Values in the Workplace: Being APA in a Global Context

workshops subject to change*

for full workshop descriptions, visit*

http://leap.org/empower_conference_chicago.html

About the conference

This 2 day conference offers 12 innovative personal professional and community driven development workshops. Designed by and for Asian Americans, these workshops will teach participants to leverage their leadership skills and lead community action in the Asian American community and beyond.

More Info / Register Online

http://leap.org/empower_conference_chicago.html

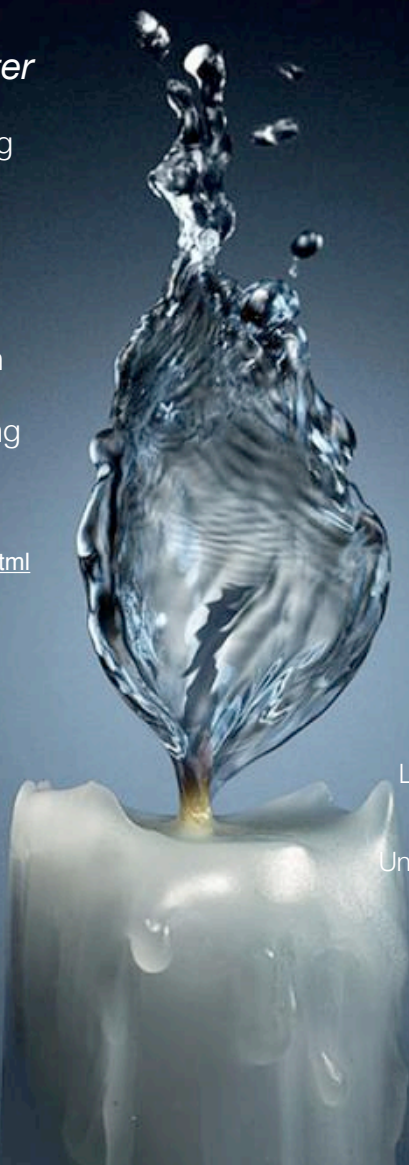

Contact

Reimar Macaranas, LEAP

213.485.1422 x 4102/ rmacaranas@leap.org

April Lewton, Asian American Institute

773.271.0899 / april@aaichicago.org.

In partnership with:

Asian American Institute (AAI)
Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP)
National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP - Chicago)
University of Illinois at Chicago - Asian American Resource and Cultural Center

Sponsored by:

