

Houston Leadership Conference

Realizing Your Potential Building Personal Capacity

Workshops include:

Philanthropy
Being a 21st Century Leader
Effective Communication Styles
Assertiveness Training
Stress Management
Getting Ahead: Skills for Career Success
Coaching and Mentoring

October 27, 2007
Houston Leadership Conference

- Who | Individuals and organizations interested in serving the Asian American and Pacific Islander community in the Greater Houston area.
- What | A day of leadership training focusing on realizing potential skills you already possess, and building personal capacity with those skills in mind.
- Where | Houston Chinese Church
10305 S. Main St.
Houston, TX 77025
- When | Saturday, October 27, 2007
8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Cost | $10 students / $20 general
(includes breakfast, lunch and materials)
- Info | Scott Chan, LEAP, 213.485.1422 x 4108 /
schan@leap.org or visit
http://leap.org/empower_conference_houston.html
to register online or to download a registration form

Co-Sponsored by:

Asian Pacific American Heritage Association (APAHA), Asian American Family Services (AAFS), Asian American Health Coalition (AAHC), City of Houston, Greater Houston Community Foundation, Houston Chinese Church, Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP), OCA- Greater Houston, Vietnamese Culture and Science Association (VCSA).

Sponsored by:

growing leaders

